CHAPTER III

MASTER-PLAN

Civic survey
and master
plan.

6. (1) The Town Planner shall, as soon as may be, carry out a civic survey of, and prepare a master plan for, the development area.

(2) The master plan shall—

(a) define the various zones into which the development area may be divided for purposes of development and indicate the manner in which the land in each zone is proposed to be used (whether by the carrying out thereon of development or otherwise) and the stages by which any such development shall be carried out; and

(b) serve as a basic pattern of frame-work within which development plans for various zones may be prepared.

(3) The master plan may provide for any other matter which is necessary for the general development of the Union territory of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

Procedure to be followed in preparation and approval

7. (1) Before preparing any master plan finally and submitting it to the Administrator for approval, the Town Planner shall prepare a plan in draft and publish it by making a copy thereof available for inspection and publishing a notice in such form and manner as may be prescribed inviting objections and suggestions from any person with respect to the draft master plan before such date as may be specified in the notice.

(2) The Town Planner shall also give reasonable opportunity to every local authority within the local limits of jurisdiction any land touched by the master plan is situated, to make any representation or suggestion with respect to the plan.

(3) After considering all objections, suggestions and representations that may have been received by the Town Planner, he shall finally prepare the master plan and submit it to the Administrator for approval.

8. (1) Every master plan shall, as soon as may be, after its preparation, be submitted by the Town Planner to the Administrator for approval and the Administrator may either approve the master plan with or without modifications as he may consider necessary or reject the master plan with directions to the Town Planner to prepare a fresh master plan according to such directions.

Submission of master plan and its date of operation.

(2) Immediately after the master plan has been approved by him, the Administrator shall cause to be published in such manner as may be prescribed a notice stating that the master plan has been approved and naming a place where a copy of the master plan may be inspected at all reasonable hours and upon the date of first publication of the aforesaid notice the master plan shall come into operation.

9. (1) The Administrator may make any modification to a master plan being modifications which, in his opinion, do not effect important alterations in the character of the plan and which do not relate to the extent of land-uses or the standards of population density.

Modifications to master plan

(2) The Central Government may, in the interests of the security of the State or of the general public, make any modifications to the master plan whether such modifications are of the nature specified in sub-section (1) or otherwise.

(3) Before making any modification to a master plan under sub-section (1), the Administrator shall publish a notice in such form and manner as may be prescribed inviting objections and suggestions with respect to the proposed modifications before such date, not being less than forty-five days from the date on which the notice is made available to the public, as may be specified in the notice and shall consider all objections and suggestions that may be received by him.

(4) Every modification made under the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be published in such manner as may be prescribed and the modifications shall come into operation on the date specified in the notification.

(5) When the Administrator makes any modifications to a master plan under sub-section (1), he shall report to the Central Government the full particulars of such modifications within thirty days of the date on which such modifications come into operation.

CHAPTER IV

DEVELOPMENT OF LANDS

10. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force and subject to the provisions of section 9, no person shall, after the coming into operation of the master plan, under sub-section (2) of section 8 use or permit to be used any land or building in the development area otherwise than in conformity with such master plan:

Use of land and building in contravention of master plan.

Provided that it shall be lawful to continue to use upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, any land or building for the purpose and to the extent for which it is being used on the date on which such master plan comes into operation.

Develop-
land.

11. (1) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Regulation, the Administration may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare any area in the Union territory of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands to be a development area for the purposes of this Regulation:

Provided that no such declaration shall be made unless a proposal for such declaration has been referred to the local authority within the limits of which the area is located for its views and such views, if any, received within thirty days of such reference are considered.

(2) After the commencement of this Regulation, no development of land shall be undertaken or carried out in any development area by any person or body (including a Department of Government or the Administration) unless permission for such development has been obtained in writing from the Town Planner in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation.

(3) After the coming into operation of the master plan, no development shall be undertaken or carried out in the development area unless such development is in accordance with such plan.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (2) and (3), development of any land begun by any department of Government or Administration or any local authority before the commencement of this Regulation may be completed by that department or local authority without compliance with the requirements of those sub-sections.

Application for permission.

12. (1) Every person or body (including a department of Government or the Administration) desiring to obtain the permission referred to in sub-section (2) of section 11 shall make an application in writing to the Town Planner in such form and containing such particulars in respect of the development to which the application relates as may be prescribed.

(2) Every application under sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed:

Provided that no such fee shall be necessary in the case of an application made by a department of the Government or of the Administration.

(3) On the receipt of an application for permission under sub-section (1), the Town Planner shall issue an acknowledgement of receipt of such application and after making such inquiry as he considers necessary shall, by order in writing, either grant the permission, subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order or refuse to grant such permission:

Provided that before making an order refusing such permission, the applicant shall be given a reasonable opportunity to show cause why the permission should not be refused.

(4) Where a permission is refused, the grounds of such refusal shall be recorded in writing and communicated to the applicant in the manner prescribed.

(5) If the Town Planner does not communicate his order to the applicant within six months from the date of acknowledgement of receipt of the application under sub-section (1), such permission shall be deemed to have been granted to the applicant on the expiry of the said period of six months.

(6) The Town Planner shall keep in such form as may be prescribed a register of applications for permission under this section.

(7) The said register shall contain such particulars including information as to the manner in which applications for permission have been dealt with as may be prescribed and shall be available for inspection by any member of the public at all reasonable hours on payment of such fee not exceeding rupees twenty as may be prescribed.

(8) Where permission is refused under this section the applicant or any person claiming through him shall not be entitled to get refund of the fee paid on the application for permission.

13. Every permission for any development granted under this Regulation shall remain in force for three years from the date of such permission:

Lapse of permission.

Provided that the Town Planner may, on application made in this behalf before the expiry of the aforesaid period, extend such period, for such time as he may think proper so however that the total period does not exceed six years:

Provided further that such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh permission under this Regulation.

14. Land needed for implementing a master plan notified shall be deemed to be land needed for a public purpose.

Land for implementing master plan to be deemed to be for a public purpose

CHAPTER V

(g) doing any other thing necessary for the efficient administration of this Regulation;

Provided that—

(i) no such entry shall be made except between the hours of sunrise and sunset and without giving reasonable notice to the occupier, or if there be no occupier, to the owner of the land or building;

(ii) sufficient opportunity shall in every instance be given to enable women if any to withdraw from such land or building;

(iii) due regard shall always be had, so far as may be compatible with the exigencies of the purpose for which the entry is made, to the social and religious usages of the occupants of the land or building entered.

Penalties.

16. (1) Any person who uses any land or building in contravention of the provisions of section 10 or in contravention of any terms and conditions prescribed under the proviso to that section shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees and in the case of a continuing offence with further fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees for everyday during which such offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

(2) Any person who whether at his own instance or at the instance of any other person or anybody (including a department of Government or the Administration) undertakes or carries out development of any land in contravention of the master plan or without the permission referred to in sub-section (2) of section 11 or in contravention of any condition subject to which such permission has been granted, shall be punishable,—

(a) with rigorous imprisonment which may extend to three years, if such development relates to utilising, selling or otherwise dealing with any land with a view to the setting up of a colony within a development area.

(b) with simple imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, or with both, in any case other than that referred to in clause (a).

(3) Any person who obstructs the entry of a person authorised under section 15 to enter into or upon any land or building, or molests such person after such entry shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

Order of demolition of building.

17. (1) Where any development has been commenced or is being carried on or has been completed in contravention of the master plan or without the permission referred to in sub-section (2) of section 11 or in contravention of any conditions subject to which such permission has been granted, the Town Planner may, in addition to any prosecution that may be instituted under this Regulation, make an order directing that such development shall be removed by demolition filling or otherwise by the owner thereof or by the person at whose instance the development has been commenced or is being carried out or has been completed, within such period (not being less than five days and more than fifteen days from the date on which a copy of the order of removal, with a brief statement of the reasons therefor, has been delivered to the owner or that failure to comply with the order, the Town Planner may remove or cause to be removed the development and the expenses of such removal shall be recovered from the owner or the person at whose instance the development was commenced or was being carried out or was completed as arrears of land revenue:

Provided that no such order shall be made unless the owner or the person concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity to show cause why the order should not be made.

(2) The provisions of this section shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other provision relating to demolition of buildings contained in any other law for the time being in force.

18. (1) Where any development in any area has been commenced in contravention of the master plan or without the permission referred to in sub-section (2) of section 11 or in contravention of any conditions subject to which such permission has been granted, the Town Planner may, in addition to any prosecution that may be instituted under this Regulation, make an order requiring the development to be discontinued on and from the date of the service of the order, and such order shall be complied with accordingly.

to stop

(2) Where such development is not discontinued in pursuance of the order under sub-section (1), the Town Planner may in writing require any police officer to remove the person by whom the development has been commenced and all his assistants and workmen from the place of development or to seize any construction material, tool, machinery, scaffolding or other things used in such development within such time as may be specified in the requisition and such police officer shall comply with the requisition accordingly.

(3) Any of the things caused to be seized by the Town Planner under sub-section (2) shall, unless the owner thereof turns up to take back such things and pays to the Town Planner the charges for the removal or storage of such things, be disposed of by him by public auction or any other manner and within such time as he thinks fit.

(4) The charges for the removal and storage of the things sold under sub-section (3) shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale thereof and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of the things sold on a claim being made therefor within a period of one year from the date of sale, and if no such claim is made within the said period, shall be credited to the Consolidated Fund of India.

(5) After the requisition under sub-section (2) has been complied with, the Town Planner may depute by a written order a police officer or an officer or employee of the Administration to watch the place in order to ensure that the development is not continued.

(6) Any person failing to comply with an order under sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees for every day during which the non-compliance continues after the service of the order.

(7) No compensation shall be claimable by any person for any damage which he may sustain in consequence of the removal of any development under section 17 or the discontinuance of the development under this section.

(8) The provisions of this section shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other provision relating to stoppage of building operations contained in any other law for the time being in force.

Appeals.

19. (1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Town Planner made under this Regulation, may prefer an appeal to the Administrator within thirty days from the date of the order appealed against:

Provided that the Administrator may, entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days if he is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not filing it within that period.

(2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be made in such form and shall be accompanied by a copy of the order appealed against and by such fee as may be prescribed.

(3) The Administrator may, after giving the parties to the appeal an opportunity of being heard, pass such orders thereon as he thinks fit, confirming,, modifying or annulling the order appealed against.

(4) The Administrator shall send a copy of every order passed by him to the parties to the appeal.

Composi-
offences.

20. (1) Any offence made punishable by or under his Regulation may, either before or after the institution of proceedings, be compounded by the Administrator.

(2) Where an offence has been compounded, the offender, if in custody, shall be discharged and no further proceedings shall be taken against him in respect of the offence compounded.

Default
powers
of the Town Planner.

21. (1) If the Town Planner, after holding a local enquiry or upon report from any of its officers or other information in his possession, is satisfied that any amenity in relation to any land in a development area has not been provided in relation to that land which in his opinion is to be provided, or that any development of the land for which permission has been obtained under this Regulation has not been carried out within the specified time, he may, after affording a reasonable opportunity to show cause, serve upon the owner of the land or upon the person providing or responsible for providing the amenity a notice requiring him to provide the amenity or carry out the development within such time as may be specified in the notice.

(2) If any amenity is not provided or any such development is not carried out within the time specified in the notice, then the Town

Planner may himself provide the amenity or carry out the development or have it provided or carried out through such agency as he may deem fit:

Provided that before taking any action under this sub-section, the Town Planner shall afford reasonable opportunity to the owner of the land or to the person responsible for providing the amenity to show cause as to why such action should not be taken.

(3) All expenses incurred by the Town Planner or the agency employed by him in providing the amenity or carrying out the development together with simple interest at such rate not exceeding fifteen per cent. per annum as the Administrator may by order fix from the date when a demand for the expenses is made until payment may be recovered by the Town Planner from the owner or the person responsible for providing the amenity as arrears of land revenue.

22. Any money due to the Town Planner including interest on account of fees, or charges, or from the disposal of properties movable or immovable, may, if the recovery thereof is not expressly provided for in any other provision of this Regulation be recovered by the Town Planner as arrears of land revenue.

(l) any other matter which is required to be, or may be, prescribed.

35. Every rule made under this Regulation shall be laid, as soon as after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule, or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall, thereafter, have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.
